Owners may expect to hear the use of normal appliances or equipment and each Owner, regardless of its intended permitted use, by acceptance of a deed or other conveyance of their Lot does hereby acknowledge and agrees that complaints of this nature shall be deemed a neighbor to neighbor issue and Owners will be encouraged to resolve such issues among themselves. The Board of Directors shall decide if any complaint warrants further investigation and enforcement notwithstanding, under the provisions of this disclaimer, any participation of the Board or a Managing Agent in such matters shall be to take the position of mediator in an effort to help Owners resolve such issues as promptly as possible.”

(c) Article VI of the Original Declaration is hereby modified and amended to add a new Section 10 thereunder to read in its entirety as follows:

“Section 10 RESIDENTIAL HOA APPROVALS. In this regard, (A) the board of directors or its designee (which initially shall be the President) of the Residential HOA must execute any amendment, modification or supplement to the Design Guidelines for such modification, amendment or supplement to the Design Guidelines to be effective and enforceable against the Property and Owners of a Lot, and (B) the plan approval procedures established by the ARC shall provide for at least fifteen (15) days for the board of directors or its designee (which initially shall be the President) of the Residential HOA to review and provide written approval of (or provide comments and proposed revisions in writing to) any plans submitted to the ARC or any Modifications Committee established thereunder for any Improvements constructed with a Lot; provided, however, if such written approval is not granted by or written comments/revisions received from the board of directors or its designee (which initially shall be the President) of the Residential HOA within such review period, such approval shall be deemed granted by the Residential HOA for purposes of this Declaration (provided such deemed approval shall not be deemed approval of the ARC or Modifications Committee required under this Declaration). Any approval or deemed approval by the board of directors or its designee of the Residential HOA shall be effective for a period of one (1) year.”

3. No Other Effect. Except as expressly modified, amended and supplemented by this Amendment, the terms and provisions of the Declaration are not amended, modified or supplemented, and the Declaration, as modified, amended and supplemented hereby, is hereby amended as provided herein.

4. Severability. Invalidation of anyone provision of this Amendment by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provision of this Amendment or the remainder of this Amendment which shall remain in full force and effect. Furthermore, in lieu of each such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as a part of this Amendment a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

5. Headings. The headings contained in this Amendment are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Amendment.
